Customer Reviews

A superior thinker but the antiquated style is harder to digest than modern leaders such as Sam Harris

Very interesting and informative I like the perspectives used most times

In my opinion, besides the Trial and Death of Socrates, this is the single best introduction to reading philosophy. Clear and well written dialogue about causality, and the boundaries of what we can know regarding any rational belief in a higher power.

Interesting read

The greatest book on the philosophy of religion ever written.

it did its job. I did my homework while learning a couple things along the way. great book no damages and easy to read

This book was sent to my daughter at school. I appreciate your effort in getting it to her quickly. Nice job!

This book came looking brand new and had absolutely no marking inside. It is exactly what I asked for I am happy.
