Snip & Tell Bible Stories

Synopsis

Your children will watch in awe as Bible stories literally unfold before their very eyes. Each Bible story has a pattern for you to fold and cut as you tell the story. Discussion questions about the story allow you to get the children involved--by having younger children help tell the story if they know it--or having older children help cut and fold the patterns. The figures you create are key parts of the story, such as...The snake, the tree, and the fruit from the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3);Moses in the basket (Exodus 1-2:10);Samson and his hair--which you cut off (Judges 16);The lion from Daniel and the lions' den (Daniel 6);A string of wise men (Matthew 2:1-12);Jairus' daughter sitting up in bed (Mark 5:21-43);The fish from when Jesus fed 5,000 people (John 6:1-13);And more stories from both the New and Old Testaments! Patterns are reproducible--to let you practice cutting and telling the story ahead of time--and patterns are easy to follow. The solid lines show you where to cut, while the dotted lines show you where to fold. Make your storytelling come alive... with Snip-And-Tell Bible Stories.

These are fun stories and that clip and tell part is very well written and very easy to remember and very easy to perform. I use them on a mission trip to Honduras and they translated easily and everyone enjoyed the stories. Adults and children alike!

Great way to shake up story time and keep interest of small kiddos. The bible stories are good, but you could really incorporate your own story / storytelling if you wanted to.

I felt the end result could have been a little more impressive. Several years ago I used a similar book that was a little more in depth & produced a more impressive product. Book was in fine shape.

Love this easy to use-no artistic talent needed way to teach Bible stories! Also appreciate that the pages can be copied for my use so I can use it year after year!

This book is a wondful tool to help teach children's church. Great resource.

Finding ways to keep the young ones interested during the Sunday morning sermonette can be quite a chore-with the Snip-and-Tell Stories they anxiously watch as I snip and tell the story while sitting on the altar stoop-even the adults are peeping over the pews to see what the end product will be and often say they, too, have learned something!AnnElkins, WV

This is a great book to use in children's ministry.

Love it. Looks like the kids will have lots to do and enjoy! I would buy more of this product!
