Customer Reviews

I was a Peace Corps teacher in the beautiful little city of Adi Ugri, also known locally as Mendefera, from 1962 to 1964. I could not have been sent to a more wonderful place. Eritrea at that time was part of Ethiopia, and the war that led to its independence was just beginning. This Profile is heartbreaking in view of what Eritrea could have become by now had it not been for warfare, the intractable tensions with Ethiopia, and the tragedy of its internal politics. The book is a quick, helpful update for those who know and care about Eritrea.
