Customer Reviews

The amazing artwork in this fun read was impressive. My grandson loves Minecraft and I've been learning more and more about it. When I saw this book I downloaded it so my grandson could read it. I found myself looking through it and was more than pleased with the purchase. This is an excellent way to reach kids (via a fun game) and motivate them to read. Highly recommend.

I love MineCraft. I got this book and it was goodÃ but why isn't everything blocksÃ  AndÃ  Herobrine doesn't really look like that except for the white eyes. Other than thatÃ great bookÃ If you love MineCraft and don't mind the two things I just saidÃ I think you should get this if you haven't.

This is a VERY short story. It literally took only a few minutes for my 8-year old to read. $8 for a few minutes?!

So, upon receiving this comic book my 7 yr old and I open it up all excited to read a Minecraft comic book...only to see that the illustrations aren't even close to looking like Minecraft. Also, some of the text is blurry, like the printing was done poorly.

I got this book for my boyfriends little brother for Christmas because he loves Minecraft and loves comic books. I was quickly disappointed when I saw how small it was. It's literally only a few pages long and my boyfriends 9 year old brother read it in less than an hour. The storyline was good, but it's so small it seems more like a sample book.

While the cover is drawn in the Minecraft style none of the pages are. This defeats the whole point -- its just another comic -- not what a Minecraft-fan child would want. I am returning it.

Not much to it. I bought it for my Minecraft-nut daughter. It's just ok. She only looked at it for a few minutes and was bored with it.

Purchased this for my children who both are Minecraft obsessed, ages 6 and 9. The book itself is brightly colored, the storyline easy to follow with nice large panels and clear text. It is a charming backstory for "Steve" in Minecraft. It is however a very thin graphic novel, by comparison with some more traditional graphic novels and it would perhaps more precise to state it is a comic book with a sturdier cover. It is definitely appropriate for school age children.
