Deadly Lessons: A Trial That Stunned A Nation. A Killer Whose Motive Is The Most Shocking Of All.

Synopsis

A husband's murder leads to a trial that stunned a nation, and a killer whose motive is the most shocking of all. Pam and Gregg Smart lived a seemingly storybook existence, the newlyweds very much in love. All of this was shattered when Gregg was senselessly shot to death in 1990. In the trial that followed, staggering revelations came out as to the motive behind the killing: Pam Smart had seduced a fifteen-year-old boy into murdering her husband. Master of true crime Ken Engle paints a portrait of a trial that gripped the nation in its scintillating tale of sex and murder. At its center is a woman who never quite grew up, and the reason why she had her husband murdered is the most stunning twist.

Great experience. Thank You!

I've read many true crime novels but this book only skimmed the surface of the murder and trial. It wasn't very in depth. Just your basic crime novel. It could have been better with more court testimony.

It was ok. I didn't finish it, because I kind of lost interest. I think I ended up googling the short version.

This is an interesting look into a cold blooded murder which had practically no rational motive. It takes you into the minds of the conspirators as well as what led to their undoing. An interesting read.

A repeat of old news.

Interesting story but didn't include anything more than I saw on the news. It was okay.

Would've loved more juicy details but the trial coverage is very well represented. This was a great read. Would love to know more.

I couldn't put the book down. Ken Englade never disappoints me. Pam Wojas was a rock groupie who refused to grow up and enter adulthood when her (late) husband Gregg did. She was hanging around with high school kids and going places with them socially. She's having an affair with a 15 year old kid! Justice was done. Only "Pame" and her small circle of followers believe the lies she continues to tell about that night in 1990 when an innocent man was killed for no other reason than the spoiled brat he married was tired of him.
