I found this book to be very enjoyable and fun to read to children. I have an etiquette school and have enjoyed using this book to teach manners and friendship skills. The book covers everything from just plain silly behavior and an unusual tea party to your manners and how you should behave. Children seem to respond very well to this story and I follow with a mad hatter tea party setting for the children to enjoy and sort of live out the story they have just heard. I stongly recommend this book for any family to have fun and get silly but to also teach some good manners along the way.

As a Lewis Carroll Scholar, I am always looking for an interesting item. So, familiar as I am with the Disney Film, I could not resist adding "Alice's Tea Party" to my Library. In fact, I used it last July to give an Alice-friend an "Unbirthday" Party. While the Book is geared for Children, I am in my Forties, and I find it useful, and amusing.
