Customer Reviews

As usual, an east-to-use, well organized guide

Since I use the Green Guides when I travel, I bought this one for my grandson who is going to Portugal this summer.

My wife and I have planned a trip to Portugal that has us driving across much of the country over two weeks. Other guide books, such as Rick Steves, are fine at covering the major cities and attractions but have no information on the many small towns and out of the way sites that are included on our itinerary. The Michelin Guide, which I have not used in many years, covers virtually all of the places we plan to visit and is packed with more information than other guides. Perfect for our trip.
