These cards are perfect for someone looking to build up their vocabulary. The cards are easy to find because of how they are labeled. When you open the box you will see that each section of cards (Useful Adjectives, Clothes/Shopping, Weather, etc.) has more blue marking on the top, making it very easy to find the specific section you want to work on. You could also just arrange the cards into whatever groupings you like to study differently from how they are set up originally. I really, really like these cards.

These flash cards are grouped by topic (e.g., bank/money, animals, sports/entertainment, school, travel/directions), which is convenient when you're studying a specific topic. Other than a section of "useful adjectives," if you want to study particular parts of speech, you have to separate them out. Not a big inconvenience, though. I would have liked the verbs to indicate if they're strong/weak, irregular, and so on, but the reverse of the glossy side of the card is suitable to write that information on.

Great, I especially like how the cards are organized by category and it's easy to find them in the box. Each card is numbered so I can put them back in order when I'm done. The categories are Useful Adjectives, Sports and Entertainment, Food/Restaurant, Clothes/Shopping, Bank/Money, School/Workplace, Family/People, Habitat, Body/Health, Travel/Directions, Weather, Calendar/Time, Numbers and Measurement, Colors, Basic Greetings. I also like how grammatical notes are sometimes added to clarify something. For example on the card for the word "which?" it says "welcher [sing.]". Plurals are also added which is nice. A good purchase.

I quite like how this displays all the correct pronunciation and ways to say the words, however I think this list does get bland after a while of repeating the same things, not to mention it's ordered in a slightly confusing way. The list is organized so I can't quite find a word I want to without some struggle, however after a bit you get the memorization down and you can find them with a glance. I would say this is a very useful tool for people just starting to learn this language.

I had a set of flash cards years ago, but they were nothing like these. These are above and beyond. I love how they're indexed, and even the sides of the box are used as instructional language tools. Very useful.

Great cards to learn German, comes in categories to make it easier to use.

Quick and easy for looking up commonly used words.

Fits great in my travel binder
