I was very disappointed at the inaccuracies in the genealogy section. She states that Pierre Boucher, son of Gaspard, was married twice and had no offspring with either wife. In actuality he had a son with his first wife and 15 children with his second. She goes on to say that Pierre's sister, Madeleine who married Urbain Beaudry had no offspring. Again, she's in error, the couple had 11 children. That's as far as I've gotten in the genealogies, I hope the remaining entries will be correct.

Excellent research done. Must have for genealogists.
