Dog Diaries #5: Dash

Synopsis

A dog's-eye view of the Mayflower voyage and the first Thanksgiving at Plymouth Colony! English springer spaniel Dash and his furry friend Mercy--a mastiff--travel with their master, John Goodman, in search of the New World. Taken from the pages of history, this Dog Diary follows the story of the colonists whom we now call Pilgrims, from their sixty-six-day voyage at sea to the celebration of their first harvest with the Wampanoag Indians who become their friends and advisors. With realistic black-and-white illustrations by Tim Jessell and an appendix including information about the Mayflower, Plymouth Colony, springer spaniels, and the primary sources on which the book is based, this is historical fiction that dog-loving middle graders--and educators--can be truly thankful for!

along well with horses. To learn more about her and her work, visit www.kateklimoauthor.com. TIM JESSELL is an award-winning illustrator whose work has appeared in numerous children's books. He is the illustrator of all the books in the Dog Diaries series. Check out his work at timjessell.com.

book - Beautiful!

Wonderful Story about a dog who arrived in America on the Mayflower. This story tells of his adventures from his own perspective. It's interesting learning a bit about that time in history as well. My children love the Dog Diaries and Horse Diaries series both. Even I read them at my age.

My son loves dogs & loves this series. He's read almost all of them at this point and we even have the new one on pre-order. He is 9 and an avid reader. If I would let him, he would stay up late to devour this book in one night.

Daughter loved the series

Great read for kids

Came on time. Bought as a Christmas stocking stuffer and sure it will be fine

My granddaughter, 10 years old, has read all Dog Diaries, and just loves them. The story is written from the dog's point of view. I would also recommend The Horse Diaries. She absolutely loves them and asks for the next one even before it comes out.

Great book
