Katerina'S Adventures In Rhodes

Synopsis

I wasn't going to let the fact that I have Multiple Sclerosis, stop me from flying off to the Greek islands for some fun in the sun. . This is a diary about holidaying in three different resorts on the island of Rhodes; Tholos, Stegna and Pefkos. I bought my first mobility scooter in 2004. It is my friend and companion when I travel. This, along with my love of writing, is what inspired me to write this book. The time I had there, the wonderful people that I met, the obstacles I faced and the challenges I overcame whilst travelling with my mobility scooter, is to me, what makes it all the more fun! 'A life without a risk is a life unlived.'

Customer Reviews

I was born in Cheltenham in 1968, and moved to Bristol when I was three months old. After leaving home aged eighteen, I had several different jobs and lived in various shared houses and flats. I also lived in New York in 1987 for one year, working as an au-pair. I was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis in 1994, and since leaving full time work, I have had various voluntary jobs, mainly working in charity shops - the closest thing to my love of working with the general public. Currently single, I have been living for the past twelve years in a 1930's ground floor flat.
