Customer Reviews

My son really liked it, the only issue I have is, he is reading more advanced now and he has kind of our grown it. He is 6, I'd say the book is more suitable for younger boys.

Large print to help learn words. Colorful illustrations. My grandson loves bat man so we like the super friend stories. Love the book.

One of my son's favorites.

My son is all into superheroes right now. This was a great way to get through story time every night he supplied the sound effects while I read to him.

Great Book! Shipped as promised in perfect quality! Would purchase more books from this seller!

Definitely recommend!

Early reading for little boys who love superhero stories. The twins insisted that we read it repeatedly and added it to their collection of Superhero books. (age 4)

My daughter loves this book! It was in great condition and a great price. The book was delivered promptly as well and was not bent. I would buy from this seller again.

I don't expect high literature when reading these books to my 30 month old, but this one has a couple of plot holes in it that scream out. [SPOILER ALERT] First, Gorilla Grodd steals a magical gem and uses it to transform bananas to gorillas. A few pages later, Superman has the gem with no explanation of how he got it. Second, the Green Lantern traps some of the magical, yellow gorillas with a net from his ring. Come on, who's writing this story? Anyone who has read anything about Green Lantern knows he cannot affect yellow objects.PS. The Green Lantern is John Stewart, not Kyle Rayner, so no explanation for affecting yellow there.
