Customer Reviews

OMG this thing was super necessary for my contracts class. Perfect in every way. Honestly, you might be able to get by by just reading these quick briefs in class as opposed to doing the actual reading. Obv not the best choice but... you get what I mean. Also SUPER helpful for studying for the final because it gives you nice concise case rules for every case, which is good for putting together all the information from your class at the end of the semester. Absolutely a must if you want to feel prepared for class. Just read it right before class and you'll ace it if you get called on. It also gives you definitions for the fancy words you see in cases yet have no clue what it means.

If you have the textbook- this supplement is vital! Great rules and layout of the cases! An excellent source for law students, definitely recommend

What I didn't do- read the casebook at all.What I did do- read this little summary book.End result: B+.Not bad for zero effort in a 2.7 curved course.

This has been incredibly helpful when briefing cases. Of course I brief on my own and then use this to "check my work."

you might think about getting this supplement to wrap your brain around the concept of contracts and the big picture. is helpful with definitions

love it

This book is practically helpful outline in the class. I am very much thankful for the book conditions. THANK YOU AGAIN.
