Customer Reviews

I inherited a little Bichon shortly after my elderly Aussie Shepherd died. Sammy is the light of my life and he sleeps on my bed with me. He usually sleeps on my tummy whenee fall sleep on recliner. He got away once, right after I got him. I think he was looking for his, mom who had died. Luckily my nurse, was, on her way to my house, and, she saw, him tied, to see tree in a front yard about 1/2 mile from home. I was so happy when she brought him home. He has never done that again.

This is told from the dog's perspective. I recommend this for anyone who loves happy dog stories. Suitable for younger readers.

Sweet short story from a dogs perspective, of a missing Mom, having to find her, being pick up by animal control and being micro-chipped. I love storied written from the animal's perspective.

I would have liked it if it had been longer. There was potential for so much more. Maybe next time this was a cute story and I liked the good ending.! It touched my heart. I like the dogs name Jellybean and that the dog told the story!

Great book.
