The Parkerstown Delegate (Christian Endeavor Series)

Synopsis

Lois Peters is home again, and no one is more excited about her return than her young friend Harley Winters. Lois brings back with her the idea and excitement of forming a Christian society for young people. Harley initially feels unable to help, due to his debilitating illness. With determination, however, Harley becomes a cornerstone of the new society and a powerful advocate for his faith. A Christian novella by Grace Livingston Hill. Edited for typographical errors, while maintaining the author's original writing style. Also included for free at the end of this ebook is the short story "Fairy Tales Redux," which follows the family-friendly adventures of a teenage prince through well-known fairy tales.

Customer Reviews

The story is captivating. Faith, selflessness, diligence, caring, and the blessing of many lives being changed through the obedience and devotion to the Lord shown by the main characters. There are few stories like this in the 21st Century. I would recommend it to those who want/need to live in the Lord's presence.

I have read many Grace Livingston Hill books. I have greatly enjoyed them all. This one is no exception.

Really enjoyed this movie! The young sick boy especially!

I loved this book. You can't go wrong with Grace Livingston Hill!

The story itself, The Parkerstown Delegate, is a sweet story by one of my favorite authors. Itself, it deserves 5 stars. This kindle edition, however, does not. For any GLH fans who have her books in paperback, this is #97 in the series (Tyndale, Living Books, etc publishers). However, the kindle edition only contains this story. The paperback version contains this story, plus 'A Chautauqua Idyl' and 'A Little Servant' (available separately for Kindle, for $1.99 and $2.99, respectively). I paid 99 cents for this one, but I would have been very unhappy to pay $2.99 for it. Instead of GLH's other two stories, it contains some ripoff of fairy tales that I could have done without. There is a second kindle edition of this book currently on . I just bought it, hoping it had the missing two stories, and promptly returned it. It doesn't.
