Clever Letters: Fun Ways To Wiggle Your Words (American Girl Library)

Synopsis

This isn't a book about how to write a proper letter--it's a book that makes writing and doodling more fun. Here's where girls will find super stationery ideas, crafty note-folding techniques, top-secret codes, fun lettering styles, silly sign-offs, and more.

Customer Reviews

My granddaughter will enjoy this book.

So fun! My daughter loves this! Great for kids who love words, writing, books, drawing, and... you get the idea!

my daughter borrowed from library and liked it so much she wanted to keep it. I went ahead and bought on here for her.

it had stane on it

This book was one of the most Clever books I have ever read! It has all sorts of things to do with letters. Even though I couldn't really do most of the activities, it was very interesting to read! There are awesome examples to show you how to spice up your stationary, add some creativity to your words, and even some secret messages you can do! This is a fantastic book! You ought to buy it!

This book is filled with great ideas!!! Not only cool, unique ways to write words, but there are new ways to write in secret codes beyond pig latin, fun borders and signatures for letter-writing, et cetera. This delightful book for girls ages 8-12 also has awesome ways to write from the road, and some tips I used for scrapbooking, too! I totally recommend it!

I loved this Book. Its filled with so many great ideas. It kept me entertained for hours. I would recommend this book for any one that likes Art. I'm American But I live in Spain and I've introduced American Girl to all my Spanish Friends And they liked this American Girl book the most. You will not regret getting this book.

Artistic American Girls are sure to be engaged in this spiral bound book. From ways to change up your lettering, to paper capers, top secret, writing from the road, super stationary, and even getting in your last word. Cartoon notebook instruction makes the book even more fun.
