Highland Imposter

Synopsis

Grizel Fraser plans to kill William Cameron, for it was by his orders that her father and brothers died violently in a clan clash. She will avenge their deaths with her own life if necessary. Sneaking into Castle Tor as a servant, she is assigned to serve William his nightly dinner. With her dagger strapped beneath her gown, she gladly takes on this new task. But waiting for the perfect moment to kill him takes longer than she planned. As Grizel gets to know William, things shift. Her rage turns to hatred, which turns to curiosity, which turns to affection. She's horrified to discover that she's falling in love with him. When the castle is ambushed, William finds her hidden dagger with clear Fraser markings. Her cover is blown, and her fate is in William's hands - the same hands responsible for the deaths of her family. Grizel waited too long to exact her revenge, and now it's her life on the line.
