Georges Bizet was a French composer, mainly of operas. In a career cut short by his early death, he achieved few successes before his final work, Carmen, became one of the most popular and frequently performed works in the entire opera repertory.

Nice recording with lots of pics, the libretto and a history.

Complete with two CDs this is a good primer before [or remembrance after] "Carmen." The book tells you the entire story of this Opera. After seeing Carmen at the New York City Opera, I enjoy it again and again by listening to it and sometimes reading along with the Black Dog opera series of books with CDs.

Great seller, Shipped and arrived on time as described, doing business was a pleasure and I don't say this just because...I say it because you are a great person to buy from.

I love the Black Dog Opera books--background information on the opera, full text and its English translation, the opera on CD. What's not to like?
