Customer Reviews

Accord Publishing is a publisher of New York Times bestselling children's books and a division of Andrews McMeel Publishing.

This is a really cute book. I love how when opened the book makes two handles on either side. Makes it easier for little hands to hold. Bought this book as a companion to a little girls tea set I'm using for a centerpiece for my sisters baby shower tea party. The illustrations are adorable. My three year old wanted to keep it herself. It's also a little hefty and a good sized board book. Beautiful quality.

Bought for 18 month old granddaughter for Christmas this year to go along with a FP tea set also bought on . I think she will enjoy it. It's a darling heavy board book that should stand up to a toddler's page turning!

We gave copies of these books in conjunction with a stuffed bunny to our young nieces at Christmas. The shape of the book is adorable for play acting a tea party. The illustrations and story are very sweet.

Our 2 1/2 year old loves this book. I enjoy reading it to her, so it holds an adult's interest when having to read it multiple times in one sitting.

The book is a bit smaller than I imagined but its perfect for little hands! The illustrations and story are very sweet. The book is a little short as well, I feel like the story cuts off a bit but my daughter has a short attention span so again it's okay.

My 3 year old LOVES this book! She carries it by the handle and pretends to pour it. She also loves the adorable story and illustrations that go along with it!! I recommend it.

I saw this book at the Huntington Library (California) but they only had one and I have two little granddaughters. So I purchased one there and ordered the other off . It is an adorable book with cute pictures and a catchy rhyme. Short enough for young toddlers and even has a little handle for them to carry around.

Cute story for a beginning reader.
