His Captive: A Revenge Marriage Romance

Synopsis

Iâ™m gonna break her. And sheâ™ll scream as Iâ™m doing it. Anna is a slut. The redhead is a gold digger who got my brother to propose after one night. After twenty-four hours, my stupid little brother was head over heels, worshipping at the curvy girlâ™s altar. But Iâ™m not gonna let her destroy us. Iâ™m not gonna let her steal our family fortune. Iâ™m not gonna let her walk away with everything. So Iâ™ve kidnapped the redhead. Yeah, I tied her up and threw her into the back of my trunk. And now sheâ™s locked up with no place to go. The redheadâ™s in chains. Writting and mewling. Crying out helplessly. Begging me. Bending over. Because I know she wants it. And do I give it to her? HELL YEAH. But whoâ™s the captive now?

Spoilers "ÃœNo, absolutely not," comes my panted reply, hands still trying to cover my body. "ÃœNo no no." But Robert won't take no as an answer. He raises his fist, that massive palm high above" The above quote should explain it all, but here goes. Anna and Ann-Marie are sisters. Anna is older, responsible. Ann-Marie is snotty and promiscuous. Chance and Robert are brothers and twenty years apart. Robert is the eldest. Ann-Marie and Chance meet and become engaged after only knowing each other for one day. Robert, thinking she is after the family money, mistakenly kidnaps Anna. But his goal is never made clear as to why he actually kidnaps her. He keeps her in a remote cabin for a month. During this time he abuses her sexually, mentally and emotionally. It almost seems like Anna has Stockholm Syndrome. They fall into a very false sense of a normal life while at the cabin. Towards the end, things got even more confusing. Robert brings Ann-Marie to the cabin to make Anna believe that they are together because she and Chance broke up. Anna runs away but he finds her six months later. OKAY. I didn't like it! At all! It's disturbing and I felt grossed out. I finished it only because I was hoping for some redeeming qualities...but I found none. I can't understand where all the positive reviews come from! It's not romantic or even erotic. It's just disturbing.

Gotta say, I have always liked a touch of porn in my reading. But well-written porn is rare, and you won't find it in this book. I've never read such plainly bad porn disguised as romance in my life. And I'll say it again, I love reading porn, good porn. This isn't smut, this isn't romance, and it didn't have much of a Happy Ever After ending either. In fact, this short story just blended in with the next few. I have no idea how much "bonus material" was in the book, because I stopped reading when I reached the end of My Captive. OMG. I could quote some of the dumbest lines I've ever read, but go ahead and see them for yourself. I don't think you'd believe me if I wrote them down here. Again, I read porn. Hell, I write porn. But I've never tried to disguise it as anything except porn. Cassandra Dee is really insulting her readers by calling this Erotic Romance - its badly written porn.

Are you kidding me? If no ones told ya yet, let this be a trigger warning. There are elements of kidnapping, rape and abuse all up and through this book. Why is this labeled romance? There's nothing romantic about it. I'm floored by the glowing reviews. Is this really what people want to read? Spoiler Alert I'd hardly call abduction, verbal abuse and a psycho male lead "romantic." Robert was absolutely intolerable with no redeeming qualities and Anna was not a believable heroine. I'm sorry but I just couldn't do it. Please explain to me what's sexy about rape? There's literally a scene where she goes from screaming "no" and pleading him not to touch her to her having his ! in her mouth and "loving" it. What?! I'm so disturbed that this clearly has a large following. There's a difference between dark romance (I've read my fair share) and just plain terrible writing. This was laughable at moments. For example, "That's right, you exist as Daddy's cumbucket, you're Daddy's sperm receptacle." Hahahahahaha, I'm done. Good riddance to this author.

I have read many Cassandra Dee books and know what I'm getting... smutty, fast paced, OTT stories...BUT 'His Captive' really took this to the total extreme... even though I enjoyed the first half enough, the twist in the middle made me very uncomfortable. Anna, the sweet, curvy older sister does everything for her younger sister, Ann-Marie - a self-righteous, model who thinks she's entitled. Ann-Marie irrationally gets engaged one night while out partying. Anna trying to persuade her to hold off on doing anything rash with a man she just met in an alcohol induced state ends up fighting with her. As she is not getting through, she is off to work on Saturday while Ann-Marie throws insults at her. On her way to work, Anna gets kidnapped by a strange man, begging for the reason she is being taken- he tells her he needs to stop his brother from marrying a gold digger!!! She explains he has the wrong person- it is her sister that is marrying his brother not her, they both have red hair.. of course he does not believe her. The chemistry between these two is off the charts and soon they are setting up home and they are getting very, very dirty... This plot twists as Robert, our leading man, kidnapper, decides to play more games... Anna isn't a walk over thankfully... but it all got a bit strange... The ending happened too fast and I was left annoyed... sorry... I am a verified purchaser in Australia

The beSt book on . This was the first book I read on my kindle and so far it is number one mail to me. It was everything I was looking for in a romance. Most of it are big girls so it feels so good to be able to see yourself in a love story. Because we know our husband find us sexy too. That is why we always get our man. Again great book worth every penny plus comes with more stories.

I volunteered to read this arc and I loved it. This was a five star because it was so awesome. Highly recommended for everyone. So hot you have to use as and at least three pitchers of water and lots of ice. Loved this book.

I couldn't even finish this. It was fast moving, but the exchanges between the H/h were awful. Also, she was a bigger girl, which I have no problem with, but every other sentence at the beginning was she talking about how big she is. It was too much.
