HELLO TORONTO: A Great Guide To Canada's Largest City

Synopsis

The late, great Peter Ustinov once said that Toronto was like New York, but run by the Swiss. And that summarizes this incredible Canadian city. Toronto is world class in every way. It is dynamic, glitzy, cosmopolitan, multi-ethnic and vibrant. And it is impressive with a skyline that rivals that of New York. If you are planning a trip or have even thought of visiting, this is the book for you. It is a very comprehensive look at Toronto written by a Canadian with deep roots in this venerable city. And as a starter, the book introduces you to Canada in a way you may never have thought of yourself. So please give it a read and you will not be disappointed. And if you do visit, you will be even more amazed by Toronto.
