Customer Reviews

The images, colors, topics, printing -- all are top notch. Though I prefer postcards not come in this format, where three-fourths of each card's sides must be trimmed of perforations, I gladly submit and break out my trimming scissors in order to get such beautiful cards. Terrific to send, to frame, or just to moon over the lifestyle depicted. Quality control is sadly lacking in the printing and assembly of this book. One eight-card spread had faulty registration, printing, and assembly into the book. This rendered one-third of postcards completely unusable. Extremely frustrating. If Dover publisher got their act together or printed these in a different format, this would be a real winner.

Excellent - So so so Happy! I ordered these to use as our Save the Date postcards for our upcoming Speakeasy Wedding - and they are just perfect! Great quality, glossy pictures, and they have the information regarding the artist and year the advertisement is from. Also, they come in a great flat book that is easy to remove from. I am so so pleased!!! The backs are almost completely blank so there is plenty of room to write!

The cards are nice albeit flimsy, but I could live with that. Worse than that, though, was the fact that the cards in my book were printed wrong and perforated wrong, a major printing error that makes most of the cards unusable. Unfortunately I did not notice this until after I had started removing the cards.

these were such a great surprise! i bought them as a filler to reach the $25 minimum for free shipping, and was pleasantly wowed by the quality not only of the actual postcards but of the unique and crisply bright pictures themselves! the retro-pretty images fit my tastes so well, i bought a few small frames and used them to inspire a mini-makeover... they now hang in my otherwise-plain black and white bathroom!

These will be great for Postcrossing, for those who like vintage ads or anything about wine. A big plus is that these tear out very nicely.

The postcards are pretty neat, but they are a bit too flimsy and could easily be destroyed if not mailed in an envelope.

Dover Postcards usually deliver and these did not disappoint. Nice variety of vintage ads postcards...as another person noted great for postcrossing or for keeping...definitely worth the price
