Customer Reviews

"Reading Wes's book is an eye-opening experience! This book explains what must be done to make a substantial and positive difference in the amount of annual income tax paid - perhaps even resulting in 100's of thousands of dollars saved over several years of using these little-known strategies. I love it that these strategies have been hiding in plain sight inside the tax code all along and come from either tax law, tax court cases, or the IRS's own official publications. No funny business. The book is an easy read, written in a conversational tone, and addresses all the normal concerns that come up when discussing such a dry and potentially problematic area such as tax reduction. Wes's book shines a much needed light on these unknown tax strategies and teaches you what to do to take advantage of them. The cost of not educating yourself about these strategies is just too high! I can think of no other way to make such a quick, large, and lasting impact on your long term financial security! My recommendation: Get the book. Educate yourself. Hire Wes and TaxVantage Consulting. Keep more (sometimes much more) of what you have worked so hard to earn! Jeffrey Janson, CFP, AIFA

This book is fantastic! It shows how to work with your existing CPA to lower your taxes by tens of thousands, even hundreds of thousands- legally, ethically, and guaranteed. Great information for every with incomes above $400,000. Don't pay more taxes than you have to- get this book, read it, and then contact Wes today!

As self serving as it gets. Book taught me nothing.
