Facundo de Zuviria, reknowned Argentine photographer, specialising in cityskapes, architecture and interiors. Has exhibited his photographs in prestigious museums in Latin America and Europe, and has published numerous books on these subjects.

Bought it as a gift for someone from Montevideo, and they absolutely loved it. The photographs are like a love letter to the city and anyone from this city will definitely love it

Exactle what i Look for

A delightful photographic voyage, searching for the very soul of this often overlooked capital city. I congratulate the Editor in keeping the right balance throughout... with a result that can only make its residents very proud of their heritage. This secret Montevideo, with its fine buildings, hidden interiors and its fascinating people, is waiting to be discovered. A very recommendable buy.

What a magnificent book! Facundo de Zuviria is a true craftsman at finding the most exquisite details and hidden corners of any city. I was very eager to finally get a copy of this jewel after having enjoyed their previous Cartagena de Indias book. Truly a joy to one's eyes. Beautiful poetic texts to illustrate the photos too!

This book made me discover Montevideo and the beautiful hidden places selected by Erica Roberts and captured by Zuviria. A must for anyone visiting Montevideo, an inspiration for the soul. I am looking foward to a third book on the series "Cities of America".
