I think it's a great book, except I ordered the wrong one by mistake. I wanted the one for small children (ages 4-5), but it was a good book to 'pay forward' to someone who can use it.

My second grader reads these aloud each day, and afterwards we discuss the devotion. The topics are relevant, the language is clear and engaging, and the truths are meaningful both to myself as an adult, and my child. Grateful to have this book to share and guide our discussions and reading.

"Train up a child in the way they should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

I love this kids devotional; it gives my son time to reflect and ask questions as he grows with God.

my son reads this every night before he goes to bed. its a great devotional for children he's 7 years old Love this book. Perfect for short, time to relax bedtime reading.

Beautiful devotional

I bought this for my niece. It is for kids but it would be good for an adult too.
