Kathy's Walkabout On Ireland's West Coast And Dublin

Synopsis

Ever been excited about an upcoming trip, only to have that enthusiasm squelched by trying to weed through mounds of information in your newly purchased travel guide? Well, I have (sigh) and that is exactly what prompted me to share my travel journal with you. This book is meant to be a personal overview of my amazing trip to Ireland's West Coast and Dublin. It contains vivid descriptions of the coast and countryside, personal insights, breath-taking photos, and best of all, information about Must See sites, charming towns, not-to-miss cuisine, and of course, intimate pubs containing the best traditional Irish music. This journal is not meant to overload you with dull facts but rather to provide interesting information that will whet your appetite as you plan your exciting journey to Ireland. So take a few minutes...and please come along and share my journey before embarking on your own. I hope you enjoy the read and most of all, I wish you an awesome trip!

Sláinte! As we meander the stony, green hills, we will converse about the rich history of Ireland, the ancient castles and graveyards, and the quaint towns we encounter along the way. We will visit Ireland's wild coastline and perhaps put a toe in the chilly waters. In the evenings, we will visit cozy, lively pubs, toasting over a pint of Guinness and tapping our toes to traditional Irish tunes (you'll love the pipes!) Throughout our journey, I will share humorous antidotes about other fellow travelers and provide you with helpful recommendations, such as where to find the best lamb in Ireland, fun shopping opportunities, or the best Bed and Breakfasts near Bunratty Castle. By the end of our journey, I hope you will have developed a taste for what lies ahead. Anticipation is a major part of any adventure! So, my fellow travelers, I pray you have an amazing journey, discovering this mysterious land and that it becomes a part of you as it did for me. Slainte!
