The Invaluable Experience

Synopsis

Danielle Lao, a two-time All American tennis player at USC explains why playing college tennis was a time in her life she will never forget and why playing college sports is an "Invaluable Experience." A must read for anyone interested in playing college sports and for those that have had that "Invaluable Experience," it's a chance to relive one of the greatest times in their lives. Having just graduated in 2013, Lao gives advice based on her own experiences and gives a glimpse into life on the pro tour. Lao teams up with writer Rick Limpert to let you into her life as a student athlete at one of the top programs in the country.

Customer Reviews

Terrific insight with a lot of helpful advice for kids looking at college scholarships and the kinds of things they should be working on academically as well as athletically.

Great read for all players, especially those planning to play college tennis. No fluff...to the point. Thanks for sharing your "Invaluable Experiences."

Great read. Thoughtful insight. Parents should buy this for their teenage athletes.

Danielle has done a great job sharing her story of what she learned playing college tennis. This is a must read for any athletes interested in playing a college sport!

To whomever picked up our Kindle in Luang Prabang (probably Delilah's Cafe) and has purchased this book with our account as well as a guide for Ventiane in German and a third book
