Marty Basch is an avid skier, snowboarder, and cyclist who has written three bicycling books as well as many articles about the outdoors for publications such as The Boston Globe, Ski, and Snow Country.

A very well written book with lots of detail on how to get to a trail, description/map of the trail, whether it is suitable for snowshoeing or X-country skiing or both, as well as a few bits of trivia and suggestions for a good place to eat after a days outing to replenish. I only wish the book were 5 times bigger to cover more trails.
