Forever Bear (Return To Bear Creek Book 4)

Synopsis

Can Cal convince Teagan he is her forever bear? Teagan's mom never got over her mate leaving after a brief relationship. Unable to cope, she handed her baby over to foster care. A part of Teagan always felt abandoned, and yet she never let herself believe she was unworthy of love. Yet her childhood and all the unanswered questions she has stored up, still haunt her. Then bear shifter Cal walks into her life. "OK, so maybe he doesn't walk into her life. Cal saves her from drowning in a flooded creek and gives her the kiss of life. One of many, many, kisses if Cal has his way. Cal senses her need to find answers. All he hopes is when Teagan finds them, she doesn't think history will repeat itself. He is now, and will always be, her forever bear.

Customer Reviews

I went back and re-read all of Harmony Raines Bear Creek and Bear Bluff books (and Cowboy Bear Brothers, too) before reading Forever Bear. It is well worth the price. I enjoy her HEA and her treatment of complex familial issues. I would love to see her do a full book-length, even if it incorporated multiple heroines and heroes finding each other.

shifters, urban-fantasy, paranormal, erotica, romance, family-dynamics Teagen is a journalist and a bear shifter who grew up with good foster parents thanks to a dragon of a social worker, but longs to be part of a family as her mother got broken when her nonshifter mate disappeared before Teagen was born. Cal is a firefighter who moved away from Bear Creek in hope of career advancement leaving a loving family of bear shifters. They meet under odd circumstances, but instantly realize that they are mated. And that's only the beginning of the story!

Teagan and Cal's story...Teagan has always wondered who, what and why when it comes to her birth parents and this intrepid reporter isn't going to be satisfied until she gets the full story. Once she meets her mate, Cal and his family, she decides to search for answers in earnest. I love the Bear Creek books! The characters are so strong, reliable and loyal. Okay, so it's not real life. Who cares? These books make me feel good and that's why I can hardly wait for the next one. Bear Creek Forever!

Teagan was raised in foster care. She had a good childhood. But she yearns to find her biological parents. Cal has recently returned to Craggstone Town to his family and work as a firefighter. Both bear shifters are searching to improve their lives. When Cal and Teagan meet, albeit in a perilous situation, they know they've met their fated mate, but does Teagan really believe in forever? Learning to trust each other helps each of them in their search for completeness in their lives. Reading about them in their personal quests is touching and rewarding. Cal's huggable family and Reagan's network of friends truly completes this heartwarming story.

WOW - this is the sweetest love story I've read in a while. Harmony knows how to weave an interesting story with well developed and complex characters along with humor. Cal and Teagan meet rescuing a baby cow from the creek during a storm and that is when they realize they are fated mates. I won't tell you what happens because you need to read the book, which I totally recommend. Enjoy!

I love Bear Creek and Bear Bluff community...family...drama thrills, plots and twists and oooo hhhhuuummm! What a twist! I cried for Sarah and all her heart ached. Loved that Tegan and California got their HEA

Loved it. Bear Creek Bears are so sweet and ferocious at the same time. Just love these books they are written in such a way you can almost smell the mountain air. That makes for some great reading.

Really great storyline, two family's come together as one. I really hope there is more to come with this series.
