~3.5/5 Ryoma is determined to be around Izumi, even if it's just as friends. Izumi isn't so up for the idea, but he agrees. I don't really see what Ryoma does in Izumi. Ryoma is pushy, but he's a nice guy. Izumi is obsessed with anime, which I understand. But he's determined to write his own manga, but he sucks. He pushes Ryoma away at every instance, until he needs help with his manga. I do think Izumi is finally starting to like Ryoma back by the end of this volume, though. There's some nice sexy stuff in this volume. There's also some iffy points. When Izumi disregards Ryoma's feelings, it's just rude of him. But then there are moments where Ryoma is a bit obsessive-stalker about Izumi, looking at him while he sleeps, kissing him a little. Pushing him more than he should. I should probably be more upset about these things than I am, though, honestly. Because I take most of it as the humor it's supposed to be, and I don't really mind too much. It hasn't gone too far for me yet. I'm still enjoying this series so far. I like the humor, I'm enjoying the romance and sexy stuff. There's also more of Rei, Izumi's family manager, and I think he's great. He's protective of Izumi like a mother, and I find him a great side character. I'm looking forward to the next one.
